Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Philosophy of the Inductive Sciences, Vol. 1 of 2: Founded Upon Their History To you I may most justly inscribe a work which contains a criticism of the fallacies of the ultra-Lockian school. I will mention one other reason which enters into the satisfaction with which I place your name at the head of my Philosophy. By doing so, I may consider myself as dedicating it to the College to which we both belong, to which we both owe so much of all that we are, and in which we have lived together so long and so happily; and that, be it remembered, the College of Bacon and of Newton. That College, I know, holds a strong place in your affections, as in mine; and among many reasons, not least on this account; - we believe that sound and enduring philosophy ever finds there a congenial soil and a fostering shelter. If the doctrines which the present work contains be really true and valuable, my unhesitating trust is, that they will spread gradually from these...
