Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from English Atrocities in Ireland: A Compilation of Facts From Court and Press Records, With a Foreword by James D. Phelan I have followed closely the history of English-Irish relations, and I have always believed that a statement of facts is more eloquent than the expression of opinion. The Irish, an ancient race, enjoyed a civilization and disseminated learning before the invasion by England. They resent in this enlightened age the denial of their liberty and the indignities and. cruelties, which have been practised upon them. Ireland will only be peaceful when she is free; and the influence of the Irish throughout the world, unless freedom be granted, will be an implacable and disturbing element. The only permanent peace is a peace of justice. It can be proved out of the mouths of Englishmen that Ireland is a victim of injustice: James Bryce has said of past relations that they saw Irish manufactures destroyed for the sake of English manufacturers, Irish revenue jobbed away. England did nothing for Ireland and suffered her to do nothing for...
