Not illustrated. 1913 Excerpt: .society of men as a whole, some tremendously powerful justifying cause is required before they can be regarded as legitimate. Wa ges and Cost of Living i l O many unreliable statements are made in regard to the relations between wages and the cost of living in this and other countries, that it is interesting to find an authentic comparative study upon this subject, even though it covers but one phase of the industrial question--the railways. In June, 1912, the Bureau of Railway Economics issued a bulletin embodying the facts concerning the wages paid to railway workers in the United States, the United Kingdom and the principle countries of Continental Europe, as well as the cost of living in these countries. For statistical purposes, and to meet the erroneous arguments of those who wilfully misrepresent facts, this study is so valuable that it is reproduced in full: Average Compensation Information is not obtainable upon which can be based a comprehensive statement of railway wages being paid at this time in the different countries. Therefore, it is necessary to make comparisons for the latest year for which comparable data are available. The average daily compensation of railway employes of all classes for the year 1910 was in the United States, $2.23; in the United Kingdom, $1.05; excluding supplementary allowances negligibly affecting the average, it was in PrussiaHesse 81 cents, and in Austria 89 cents. The lowest paid railway employe in the United States, the ordinary trackman,...
