WestBow Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 40 pages. Dimensions: 10.7in. x 8.1in. x 0.3in. In Dashes Pause, the love of the Father chases a rabbit's heart through friendship, peril, trickery and rescue. The furry creature's real name and newfound courage gained by believing Truth lead him to embrace his story. The story is set in the historical context of a medieval monastery, where illuminated manuscripts were created to preserve the Word of God. Charming illustrations link the alphabet to Biblical character traits of God the Father, inspiring readers to use a mnemonic device to help hide His Word in their own hearts. We all have a story. Dashes Pause is an enchanting, provoking, and hopeful tale that invites readers to explore themes of courage, surrender and redemption in their own story. This book offers a unique glimpse into the Gospel story and provides an opportunity for readers to pause and discover the gifts of gratitude, stillness, and hope in their own journey. Amy Alexander, LMFT, Executive Director, The Refuge Center for Counseling www.therefugecenter.org A good story captures a child's interest, a great story captures an adult's too. A delightful tale that draws us to feel trapped, afraid, unaware, hurt and anxiously lost. Who will help us? Kinder and Virden entice all ages to reflect on our desperate estate and the One who offers the only remedy. Dr. Michael Easley, Former President, Moody Bible Institute, Lead Pastor, Fellowship Bible Church, Brentwood, TN Connie Kinder and Carole Virden have created a masterpiece of Biblical children's literature. Dashes Pause draws and challenges the young reader to know God's Word, to experience His story through the lives of others, and to discover a very personal relationship with the High King of Heaven. Well done, Connie and Carole. Your book is magnificent. I can...
