Coronado in 1. 41 was in actual contact with people who had visited the Red Pipestone quarries in Minnesota by way of Blue River Valley. Platte Uiver and the Missouri, evidenced by the fact that they knew and described the region beyond them, possessed pipestone from that locality, and were at war with its people. Thus we have an actual historically preserved reference to the region of. Minnesota not quite forty. nine years after the landing of Columbus. Earlier Spanish references are less satisfactory. More remotely distant was gamed a knowledge by the forces of Herinindo de Soto concerning the area of Minnesota, the same year, for they were far down the Mississippi in contact with people who seldom if ever came northward. The statement recently made that the Mississippi was discovered in 1498 by Vespucci is absolutely false. The origin of that page of deplorable...
