It is intended principally as an annex to the Home on Franklin Street, where young business women have comfortable board and lodging for a very small sum per week. Many of them this summer have thoroughly enjoyed a vacation at the Rest Home where the beautiful scenery and healthgiving air make the place a natural sanitarium. Other guests are taken at $5.00 per week, particulars at 1424 Franklin Street. The Rest Home has been furnished through the gifts of friends--suitable donations, to add to the comfort of the girls, are still acceptable. The Illinois Federation of Women s Clubs has created a department of domestic science. They ask that the first effort of club women be given to the home, and urge the studr of architecture and sanitation. Also they recommend that the clubs endeavor to introduce...
