

Speech of Mr. Phillips, of Massachusetts: Upon the Bill for the Relief of the Sufferers by the Fire at New York, Delivered in the House of Representatives, February 16, 1836 (Classic Reprint)

By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speech of Mr. Phillips, of Massachusetts: Upon the Bill for the Relief of the Sufferers by the Fire at New York, Delivered in the House of Representatives, February 16, 1836 Mr. Chairman: I hare full it my duty to examine, with carc, llie provisions uf this bill, and to weigh the objections which have been urged against 11. From an acquaintance with the stale of business, and the general situation of merchants in the city of New York; from personal observation of the immediate effects of the recent calamity; and from inquiry into the probable extent of its wide-spread consequences, I have been convinced of the importance, nay, of the absolute necessity of some early provision, on the part of this Government, for the relief of its debtors in that city; and, upon reflection, 1 am satisfied that it is not more the impulse of liberality than the obvious dictate of sound policy to do at least all that is proposed in this hill. The hill provides for two objects: first, the relief of such...

READ ONLINE
[6.96 MB]

Reviews

This pdf is fantastic. This really is for all who statte there was not a worth looking at. Your lifestyle period is going to be convert the instant you complete looking over this pdf.

-- Dr. Chaim Kub

It is not difficult in read through easier to comprehend. It is packed with knowledge and wisdom You may like just how the article writer write this pdf.

-- Kristy Hermann