He had many friends, high cheek bones and friendly eyes. Both he and President E. D. MacMaster, later, had the mantle of authority stripped from shoulders not yet stooped with age, and because they could not maintain discipline. Prof. William H. McGuffey had two passions which consumed his young life, - the preaching of the gospel and the education of the child-mind. He was a cold, unapproachable man who wanted his students to drill every morning in public oratory at 5:00 A. M. He wore a stove pipe hat and a solemn suit of shining black bombazine; and the Darrtown congregation that he supplied, were impressed by the glassy sheen of his garments. When Doctor Scott returned from Carey's premature project of the Farmer's College. Ben Harrison was in his train when Doctor S. gathered about them a...
